

A photograph of a memorial altar. The altar is constructed from large, rough-hewn, reddish-brown stone blocks. Several lit candles in small, clear glass holders are placed on the altar. Some are on top of the stone blocks, while others are on the surface in front of them. The scene is dimly lit, with the primary light source being the warm, yellow glow of the candles. The background is dark and out of focus, suggesting an indoor setting like a church.
